

Kokoda

Essay: Why was the defence of the Kokoda track so important to Australia during World War Two? Explain the factors and conditions at Kokoda that caused this battle to become one of the most remembered in Australian military history.

Words: 800

Outstanding use of essay structure, evidence used to develop discussion, Excellent, clear introduction and conclusion that answers the question.	Good use of essay structure, sound discussion/argument, and clear introduction and conclusion that mostly answers the question.	Satisfactory essay structure, has some discussion, with introduction and conclusion.	Partial essay structure,, with attempted introduction and conclusion.	Essay structure not at Grade 10 standard. Further work on Essay skills required.
Outstanding use of primary and secondary sources in discussion, extended research that supports the essay argument.	Good use of primary and secondary sources in discussion with research that supports the essay argument.	Satisfactory use of secondary sources in discussion with research that supports the essay argument.	Some evidence of research and discussion of historical events.	Research skills are not yet at Grade 10 standard. Explanation of Kokoda needs further development.
Outstanding use of historical terms and language.	Good use of historical terms and language.	Some accurate use of historical terms and language.	An attempt has been made to use historical terms and language.	Little evidence of use of historical terms and language.
Accurate editing, spelling, grammar and sentence structure.	Good editing skills, with mostly accurate spelling, grammar and sentence structure.	Satisfactory editing, spelling, grammar and sentence structure.	Editing, spelling, grammar and sentence structure need further development.	Editing, spelling, grammar and sentence structure not yet at Grade 10 Standard.