Representing Lives Assessment Task 1

Students are to research the life of a personality EG: celebrity, sporting, politician, overcoming tragedy or adversity, writers, royalty, TV personalities. Students are to ensure that they have collected a variety of text types, such as biographies, autobiographies, documentaries and any other relevant texts. Students are to then design a representation using visuals and texts in either a key note or poster format. This will be presented to the class in order to explain how the various texts used represent with accuracy or flaws aspects of this person's life.
